SCHOLARSHIPS AND PRIZES.

Arranged in Alphabetical Order.

There are eighty-two Scholarships and Exhibitions in active operation at present. They are obtainable by competition, and are tenable in accordance with the General Regulations of the Academy. Except where the contrary is stated both Students and Non-students are eligible. As a rule they are tenable for three years; but the conditions of competition and tenure vary in accordance with the wishes of the respective founders. Full particulars and entry forms are obtainable on application to the Secretary about ten weeks before the competitions, which are usually held in April.

The holder of any R.A.M. or Associated Board Scholarship or Exhibition is, during its tenure, ineligible to hold any other Scholarship or Exhibition. The holder of any Scholarship or Prize is ineligible for future competitions for that particular Scholarship or Prize. The holder of a Scholarship is subject to a periodical examination, and if satisfactory proof of progress be not given, or if the conduct of the Scholar or Exhibitioner is considered unsatisfactory, the Committee may declare the Scholarship vacant and hold a new election for the residue of the term thereof. The Award of any Scholarship or Exhibition is subject to the acceptance by the candidate of the General Regulations of the Academy and of the curriculum arranged by the Principal.

No departure from or alteration in the foregoing rules can be made except by special resolution of the Committee of Management.

The Scholarships and Exhibitions comprise:—

ASSOCIATED BOARD OF THE ROYAL SCHOOLS OF MUSIC.

Six Scholarships, founded in 1897 in commemoration of the Diamond Jubilee of Her late Most Gracious Majesty Queen Victoria, are offered by the Associated Board of the Royal Schools of Music, and are competed for annually by candidates who have passed with Distinction in Grade VII (Advanced) or Grade VIII (Final) of the Local Examinations of the Associated Board. Three of these Scholarships are tenable at the R.A.M. and three at the R.C.M. Successful candidates are entitled to at least two years' free musical education.

The competitions take place in April/May. Particulars can be obtained from the Secretary, Associated Board, 14 Bedford Square, London, W.C.1.

BACH AND BEETHOVEN SCHOLARSHIPS.

This Scholarship, of the value of £50 per annum, will be awarded annually in July by the Principal to a student of the Academy who shall complete three consecutive years.

BAUME (MANX) SCHOLARSHIP.

Founded in 1904 out of the estate of the late PETER HENRY JOSEPH BAUME, of Douglas, Isle of Man.

This Scholarship is awarded for promise in any branch of Music to Candidates between the ages of 14 and 22 years. The Scholarship is tenable only by persons born in the Isle of Man, or born of Manx parents, within certain limitations.

Candidates are required to pay an entrance fee of one guinea on entering their names, and must produce a certificate of birth. They must pass a simple examination in general education previous to the musical competition. A Candidate is exempt from the Literary Examination who can produce a certificate of either of the University Local Examinations, or who shall have attained such a position at School or College as the Committee may consider sufficient. Such exemption must be claimed when sending in entry form, and must be accompanied by certificate referred to above. The Examination and Competition will be held at such time and place as may be appointed by the Committee.

The successful Candidate is entitled to the benefits of the Scholarship for three years in the Academy, subject to the Regulations of the Committee of Management.

The value of the Scholarship is £50 per annum.

---

FANNY ELIZA BECKETT SCHOLARSHIP.

Founded 1946 by MRS. JOYCE A. MALLINSON in memory of her Mother.

This Scholarship is open to British-born non-Jewish candidates of either sex, between the ages of fifteen and twenty-five, and will be awarded for Pianoforte Playing, preference being given to the Candidate who also shows some aptitude for composition.

The successful Candidate will be entitled to the benefits of the Scholarship for two years, subject to the usual conditions and regulations of the Academy. The tenure may be extended at the discretion of the Principal. The value of the Scholarship is about £37 16s. 0d. per annum.

Candidates will be required to pay a fee of One Guinea on entry and to submit certificates of birth. They will also be required to produce evidence of a good general education.

The next competition will be held in 1949, unless extended.

---

STERNDALÉ BENNETT SCHOLARSHIP.

Founded by subscription, 1872, as a testimonial to SIR WILLIAM STERNDALÉ BENNETT, M.A., et Mus. D. Cantab., D.C.L. Oxon., F.R.A.M. (1816—1875),
Principal of the Academy from 1866 to 1875.

This is open for competition biennially by Male Candidates, in any branch of Music, who must be British-born subjects, between the ages of fourteen and twenty-one years, and who must produce certificates of birth.

Candidates are required to pay an entrance fee of One Guinea.

The value of the Scholarship is about £24 per annum, which is appropriated towards the cost of two years' instruction in the Academy.

The next competition will be held in 1949.

BLUMENTHAL SCHOLARSHIP.

Founded by Bequest of the late MADAME BLUMENTHAL, 1927.

This Scholarship, of the value of about £47 per annum, will be offered biennially in Midsummer Term for competition by Students of the R.A.M. Candidates will be required on entering to send in Compositions with a declaration that they are their own unaided work. The candidate may then be summoned to a viva voce examination. The Compositions submitted must be serious works, not songs or small pianoforte pieces. The successful candidate will be entitled to the benefits of the Scholarship for two years, subject to the Rules and Regulations of the Royal Academy of Music.

The next competition will be held in 1950.

D'OYLY CARTE MEMORIAL.

The Annual Income is to be applied to payment of fees of three male or female students in Singing in such manner and under such conditions as the Committee of Management may from time to time consider expedient and advisable.

ANNIE M. CHILD SCHOLARSHIP.

Founded 1923, in memory of ANNIE M. CHILD, Student, Professor, and Fellow of the R.A.M. (1888-1922).

This Scholarship is awarded for promise in Elocution. It is open to British-born subjects of either sex, who shall be between the ages of 16 and 19 years. Candidates will be required to pay a fee of one guinea on entering, and to produce certificates of birth.

The successful Candidate will be entitled to the benefits of the Scholarship for two years, subject to the usual conditions and regulations of the Academy, which tenure, in cases of exceptional talent, may be extended to three years, at the discretion of the Committee. Power is reserved by the Committee to withhold the Scholarship upon the report of the Examiners that no fit Candidate has appeared at the competition. The value of the Scholarship is about £20 per annum, the balance of the Academy fees being payable by the Scholar.

The next competition will take place in 1949, unless extended.

CAMPBELL CLARKE SCHOLARSHIP.

Founded 1903, in affectionate memory of the late Sir GEORGE RICHARD CAMPBELL CLARKE, by his Widow.

This Scholarship is open to British subjects of either sex, within certain limits of age, according to the subject for which the Scholarship is offered on any particular occasion, who are not nor ever have been students in the Royal Academy of Music. The subject of competition is fixed by the Committee of Management from time to time, and duly announced by them, and competitions are to be held under conditions determined by them.

The value of the Scholarship is about £29 per annum, which is appropriated towards the cost of three years' instruction in the Academy. The Committee are empowered at their discretion to withhold the Scholarship on any occasion when the Examiners may report that no Candidate has shown a sufficient degree of proficiency to be worthy of presentation, and in such case to again offer the Scholarship for competition.

Each Candidate is required to pay an Entry Fee of One Guinea, and to furnish a certificate of birth, or such other evidence thereof as may be acceptable to the Committee.

The next competition will take place in 1949.

SIR MICHAEL COSTA SCHOLARSHIP.

For Composition.

The bequest of SIR MICHAEL COSTA, Hon. R.A.M. (1808—1882),
Composer and Conductor.

This Scholarship is open to Male Candidates, who must be natives of England or Wales, and is to be awarded for ability in Composition, especially as regards the faculty of inventing Melody. Candidates must be under the age of twenty-one years, and must produce satisfactory evidence thereof. An Entrance Fee of One Guinea is payable.

The value of the scholarship is £50 per annum and the successful Candidate is entitled to three years' tuition in the Academy. The Committee has power to extend the tenure to four or five years in cases of exceptional talent or promise, or to determine it at any time if the Scholar fails to make adequate progress.

The next competition will take place in 1951, unless extended.

DOVE SCHOLARSHIP.

For Violin Playing.

Founded in 1896 by bequest of the late

MR. EDWIN SAMUEL DOVE, of Kilsby, Northamptonshire.

This Scholarship is to be competed for by Male and Female British Subjects, who must be under eighteen years of age. Candidates must not be, nor ever have been, Students at the Royal Academy of Music. The value of the Scholarship is about £22 per annum; it is tenable for three years, and is awarded to that Candidate who shall be adjudged to possess such talent as to render it likely that he or she will attain to a high position as a Violinist. The Committee may withhold the Scholarship on the report of the Examiners that no fit Candidate has appeared, and, in cases of exceptional talent or promise, have power to extend its tenure by one year.

An Entry Fee of One Guinea is payable by each Candidate.

The next competition will take place in 1949, unless extended.
